Client: Southport & Ormskirk Hospitals NHS Trust
Location: Ormskirk District General Hospital
Budget: £5.2M

Description

New build project comprising, a 2-storey estates workshops and offices block with adjoining double height boiler plant room built on existing car park.

Steel frame construction with red brick, silver cladding and powder coated ribbon windows.

New gas fired Combined Heat & Power Plant replacing old boiler house plant to provide electricity, hot water and steam heating for the whole of the Trust’s requirements, with surplus energy sold back to the National Grid.

Sensitive environmental noise and gas emission issues