

Charlotte Surrey - TGR: Welcome to our Twilight Talk with Roy Kareem. If you'd like to ask Roy a question, share your thoughts or just generally chip in - please either put your hand up ('react' on toolbar) or type here in Chat. You're very welcome to join the discussion! We'll send on slides and we'll also make the recording available post-event The Green Register has a site-wide January sale on training and events, membership and Retrofit Skills qualification. Just hop onto our website and use the discount code JAN2025

Julie Cullen: integrity, honesty, trust

Jessie Agnew: community, fairness, kindness, trust

Chloe: integrity, empathy, acceptance

Simon Winter: no

Charlotte Surrey - TGR: The discount code offers 10% off everything

Robert Morrissey: Fairness is a core value for me

Charlotte Surrey - TGR: Inner Development Goals

Chloe: hi sorry English is not my first language but what is the meaning of retrofit career ?

Jessie Agnew: I like to describe green skills by how they are applied. If skills are applied for a green outcome then they are green skills. A huge mix bag!

Neil Coles: It does seem that lots of current green skills roles currently are aimed at leadership or higher level roles, but how do we make and get more practical green skills roles popular and up and running for all young people not just high achievers

Chloe: Can I have a link to your programme I would be interested to know more ?

Charlotte Surrey - TGR: Her Retrofit Space

Tony Kerr: Thank you for remaining positive and hopeful. CSE started 45 years ago and you are still scrabbling around for small packets of funding to help people engage!! The Inner Development Goals and Impact Tool look like useful concepts/tools for me to bring to my community where engagement is still a problem.

Barry Williams: In Ireland we have nzeb training centres & they are brilliant. Short 1 or 2 day practical courses. Anyone interested in nzeb can book in.

Jessie Agnew: We've created some retrofit careers pages on Skills Connect that are useful to share with young people

Ellora Coupe: Thank you so much, great conversation

Roosje: Thank you

Sadie Potts: Thank you

Louisa Antonioli: A really interesting webinar. Thank you.

Chloe: Thank you

Jessie Agnew: Thanks Roy and TGR